- ✓ 8.7.9 No member of the faculty may invite any person who is not officially connected with the University to give lecture or talk on any subject before his class or any group of students without permission from the Dean/Director or the Vice President for Academic Affairs or the President.
- 8.7.10 Violation of the above restrictions shall be punishable by reprimand, suspension or dismissal from the service.

FACULTY WELFARE

- 9.1 The University through the Office of Health Services shall provide dental and medical services to faculty members.
 - 9.1.1 An annual medical and dental check-up shall be required of every faculty member.
 - 9.1.2 Only those who have complied with the medical-dental check-up at the end of each school year shall be given clearance which is a requirement for the release of the last salary for the semester.
 - 9.1.3 Those who are found to be physically and mentally unfit for classroom work shall be advised accordingly.
- 9.2 Medical Benefits
 - Regular faculty members are covered by the Philippine Medicare Act.
- 9.3 Life Insurance
 - All faculty members, regular, temporary or part-time are insurable with the Government Service Insurance System. There are three kinds of life insurance coverage: compulsory membership insurance for regular and permanent appointments, optional membership insurance for those who are not compulsorily insurable and unlimited insurance for those who are already insured under either compulsory or optional membership.
- 9.4 Compensation and Allowance for Disability
 - Faculty members and their dependents are given tax-exempt income benefit and medical and or related benefits in the event of work-connected injury or death according to Government Service Insurance System laws and regulations. Benefits for non-work connected injury are also provided by the System.

10. GRANTS

Scholarship, fellowship and grants-in-aid for faculty members shall be awarded in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the Board of Regents.

POLYTECHNIC UNIVERSITY OF THE PHILIPPINES
COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

- 10.1 Study grants may be granted on the basis of the greatest need for, and usefulness to the University. The appointment of the grantee(s) shall be made by the President of the University, and shall be limited to the most able, promising and deserving in the line of study selected and on the basis of University requirements, as well as availability of funds.
- 10.2 Travel, observation and research grants may be granted on the basis of greatest need, following University rules and requirements and where funds are available.
- 10.3 Any faculty who is admitted to the Graduate School shall, in addition to the authorized discount from tuition fee, be exempt from the payment of medical and dental fees.
- 10.4 The children of the regular faculty members of the University who have fulfilled University requirements, shall be entitled to a 50 percent discount on tuition fees in the University Laboratory High School or any of its colleges/institutes. However miscellaneous fees shall be paid in full.

11. ACADEMIC FREEDOM

- 11.1 Members of the teaching staff shall enjoy academic freedom; Provided, however, that no faculty member in the University shall directly or indirectly inculcate sectarian tenets and/or political partisanship in any of the teachings under penalty of dismissal by the Board of Regents.
- 11.2 Academic freedom is the right of the teacher to teach his subject of specialization according to his best lights; to hold, in other subjects, such ideas as he believes sincerely to be right; and to express his opinions on public questions in a manner that shall not interfere with his duties as a member of the faculty, or that shall not be adverse to his loyalty to the College or University that employs him. Within this specific framework which should be interpreted broadly, the following principles are hereby declared:
 - 11.2.1 The University shall not impose any limitation upon the teacher's freedom in the exposition of his own subject in the classroom or in speeches and publications;
 - 11.2.2 The University shall not place any restraint upon the teacher's freedom in the choice of subjects for research and investigation undertaken on his own initiative;
 - 11.2.3 The University shall recognize that the teacher in speaking or writing outside of the institution on subjects beyond the scope of his field of study, is entitled to the same responsibility as attached to all other citizens, but in added measure;
 - 11.2.4 The University shall, as a center of higher learning, stimulate and encourage the pursuit of truth, in every way possible;

Vice President for Academic Affairs

Dear Dr. de Guzman,

Greetings of peace in lieu of academic excellence!

In reference to the memorandum issued on June 19, 2017 regarding disapproval of one year extension to finish my vertically aligned Master's degree which have lapsed on June 20, 2017, may I respectfully request for an appeal of the aforementioned sanction.

I have enrolled 1 last subject this 1st semester 2017-2018, and scheduled to take the comprehensive examination this October. I will have my thesis ready by November for the oral presentation and be able to have the final oral defense by December 2017.

Hoping for your favorable response regarding this matter.

Respectfully yours,
